("THE QUEEN OF TABLE WATERS")

BEWARE OF SUBSTITUTIONS.

NO DOUBT AS TO ITS CHOICE.

SENTIMENT OF THE DRUGGISTS DISTRICT
OVERWHELMINGLY FOR LOW.

BOTH REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC MERCHANTS PROVING THEIR INTEREST BY SUBSTANTIAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

—ENCOURAGEMENT ON EVERY HAND.

There are booming times in the wholesale druggists trade, and everybody has his hands full of business, from the head of a house to the porter, yet they find time, or make time, to discuss the political situation, and wherever two or three are gathered together the conversation soon drifts into an argument on the Mayorality contest or a comparison of estimates as to the probable size of Low's majority. For the druggists district is for Low. There's no doubt about that. And the sentiment of the druggists district is a pretty fair index of the sentiment of the city at large. The Low tide wasn't as strong a week or two ago as it is now, but it has been gaining daily and hourly in volume since the splendid Carnegie Hall demonstration of last week, and is now sweeping everything before it—and that means the many Republicans who are in ever-increasing number becoming convinced that General Tracy has no possible chance of election, as well as all the Democrats who detest the corruption and tyranny of Tammany Hall and, honestly anxious to vote for the candidate who will overthrow Tammany, have decided that Seth Low is that candidate. Not in a Presidential election than is manifested this fall in the municipal contest, and the commercial travellers in the druggists trade who are managing the noonday Tracy meetings, and are supporting the contention of Quigg and Platt that the National issues of 1896 are the issues of the campaign in the Greater New-York in 1897, represent a very small minority of the eligible vote of the druggists district.

SUBSCRIPTIONS POURING IN.

One of the best-informed men in the district on the drift of opinion is Edward D. Page, of Faulkner, Page & Co. Mr. Page, who is treasurer of the Citizens Union, has recently caused to be circulated among the druggists houses a paper setting forth the fact that the candidates of the Citizens Union are not allowed to contribute anything to the campaign fund, and asking for voluntary subscriptions from all the men in the district who are opposed to Tammany Hall. He said yesterday: "You would be surprised to see the amount of the subscriptions which have come from both Republicans and Democrats. There seems to be a perfect landslide to Low, and it has set in within the last week, since the great meeting in Carnegie Hall was held. That seems to have been the turning-point. Men who a week or two ago declined to give a cent are now subscribing liberally—men who are conscientious citizens, most of them Republicans, who have now become convinced that Tracy cannot win and that a vote for him would not be a vote against Tammany. I can at this moment recall the names of only four druggists—men of my acquaintance who are for Tracy—or were a few days ago, for they may have changed since then. Here, in this office, a day or two ago, a man put $250 in bills into my hand, saying that his partners did not approve of it, but that his was his contribution to the expenses of the election of Seth Low. I scarcely ever come out of my office into the store to see a New-York customer without having $10 or $25 or $30 thrust at me. Men come with the money in their hands. I know their subscriptions, for I know all the classes are deeply interested and are with us."

Mr. B. Fuller, who has been many years with the H. B. Claflin Company, and who in the last four Presidential campaigns has organized the Wholesale Druggists Republican Club, is probably as familiar with the politics of the druggists trade as any other man in the district. Mr. Fuller said yesterday: "I have in the sixteen years of my experience never known a successful candidate in an election to have such a tide in his favor as is setting for Mr. Low now. Ever since the Carnegie Hall meeting the anxiety to beat Tammany has been more and more feeling that a vote for Tracy is a vote thrown away. I have been canvassing the trade carefully, and I estimate that in the druggists district, heads of firms and their employees, including all the clerks, porters and drivers, including all the men who are qualified to vote in the election for Mayor—80 per cent of the Republicans and 25 per cent of the Democrats—will vote for Mr. Low, with a very few for Gleason."

A MATTER OF HISTORY.

"Many Republicans have said that the election of Low would weaken the Republican party, but it is a matter of history that in Brooklyn the Republican party has increased in strength ever since the first election of Mr. Low as Mayor, and there is no reason to fear that his success in the Greater New-York election would work disaster to the party."

A Tribune reporter yesterday visited a few of the druggists houses to ascertain by inquiry on the spot what was the trend of opinion among the employees of each. He found a surprising unanimity. These are some of the houses visited, with the sentiments of the employees who are citizens of the Greater New-York:

Clarence Whitman & Co., 20 Leonard-st.

The great majority of the employees, probably two-thirds, are for Low.

Faulkner, Page & Co., No. 95 Leonard-st.—

About eighty of the one hundred employees are qualified voters, and 85 per cent of these are for Low, with the probability of accessions.

Garner & C., No. 10 Worth-st.—Fifteen qualified voters inside. Low is in the majority by about six votes.

Mr. Gardner & Co., Church and Franklin sts.—

Twelve or fifteen voters, of whom a majority, including the three partners, are for Low.

Smith, Hogg & Gardner, No. 115 Worth-st.—

Stewart W. Smith said: My impression is that the majority of the people will vote for Low, but it is only an impression. We have taken no straw vote.

Wheelwright, Eldridge & Co., Worth and Church sts.—Seventeen qualified voters, who will vote in this way: Low, 14; Tracy, 3.

CHALLENGED TO A DEBATE.

Samuel H. Drew, ex-District-Attorney of Cincinnati, yesterday sent the following letter to a neighbor of his in the Twenty-third Ward:

Brooklyn, N. Y., October 26, 1897.

The Rev. A. Stewart Watson:

My Dear Sir: Looking upon you as the ablest and most brilliant man that the Republic can have on the stump this year in Brooklyn, I beg to put to you if you would be agreeable to meet me on the platform and jointly discuss the municipal issues in this campaign.

I am supporting Low, and I am informed that you are for Tracy. I would suggest that we engage for Tracy, and that we meet on Thursday or Friday evening, as we both reside in the Twenty-third Ward.

was a Republican, as you know, until the machine succeeded in crushing individual conviction and decided the conscience of its individual members under the control of boxes of most arbitrary repute, respected only for their iniquitous power and only by those who expect favors from their guilty hands.

Provided this meets with your approval, we can arrange the details later. Very sincerely yours,

SAMUEL H. DREW.

MR. ADAMS INCORRECTLY INFORMED.

The Tribune has received a letter from Percy D. Adams, who makes the inquiry: "Am I not correctly informed that at the time Mr. Low was Mayor of Brooklyn, in handing the commission of his 'executive officers' he at the same time demanded and received the written resignation of said 'executive officers'?"

Mr. Adams is not correctly informed. Mr. Low did nothing of the sort.

SWELLING TIDE FOR LOW.

THE CITIZENS UNION CANDIDATE GAINING IN BROOKLYN.

PREDICTIONS OF MACHINE MANAGERS OF A SLUMP FOR TRACY NOT BEING FULFILLED—WELL-KNOWN MEN JOIN THE LOW RANKS.

The "tremendous slump in the Low movement" in Brooklyn, predicted by the Republican machine managers, which was to land General Benjamin F. Tracy in the Mayor's chair and relegate Seth Low to fourth place in the Mayorality contest, has been postponed, according to the machine men, until November 21. Predictions hitherto made that Mr. Low's followers are being transferred in large blocks to the Tracy contingent have not been fulfilled. On the contrary, every day has furnished its quota of new recruits for Mr. Low, a majority of whom come directly from the Tracy camp. The Tracy men have despaired of converting Low men, and the best thing they can do is to say that the conversion will not be accomplished and will not be expected, in fact, until the voters step up to the polls. So the only hope General Tracy's followers now have of casting a respectable vote for their candidate is founded upon their confidence that Republicans will not have the heart to put their cross anywhere except under their regular party emblem.

While the Platt managers have fallen back upon this slender hope, the Low men are daily growing in numbers and receiving encouragement from parts of the city and from classes of voters whose aid was not at first counted upon at all.

Isidor M. Bon, ex-Mayor Schroeder's business partner, yesterday enrolled his name as a member of the Low Club of the Twentieth Ward. He said he had been in favor of Mr. Low from the start, and had only hesitated to come out for him, because he had feared that a vote cast for him might be thrown away, and he had wished to reserve the right to vote for Tracy if he thought that Tracy had a better chance of winning than Low. Mr. Bon says he has now come to the belief that Mr. Low is the only man that can beat Tammany.

Theodore M. Banta, of No. 114 St. James Place, is another addition to the Low ranks. Mr. Banta has been a Prohibitionist since the organization of the party but this year he says it is his duty as a good citizen to vote for Seth Low.

The members of the Brooklyn Citizens Committee were as confident yesterday as they have been for several days that Mr. Low will be elected.

Ex-Judge Hiram R. Steele expressed the feeling of the members of the committee when he said:

"I believe in postponing the census of your juvenile folk until the incubating machine has a chance to do its full duty. Everything is now coming our way and the prospects are growing better hour by hour; but I do not like to deal in general prophecies. There are thousands of good Republicans who are now ready to transfer their allegiance from Tracy to Low, because they are convinced that Tracy is already beaten and that Low is gaining daily, and will win if he has the harmonious support of all of us whose chief desire is to see the overthrow of Tammany Hall and all its allies. My only fear now is that the Republican machine, acting upon the sentiments expressed by Edward Lauterbach last spring, and frequently repeated in one way or another by the machine men, will seek revenge and attempt to make Low's victory impossible by sending out the thousands of the strength of Mr. Low among the persons with whom he has dealings. Mr. Dow says that he knows of 150 regular Democrats who will vote the entire Democratic ticket with the exception of the name of Low. Hundreds of the Democrats, he says, will scratch Van Wyck in favor of Low. Mr. Dow believes that many wavering Republicans are becoming convinced that their vote should be cast for Low in order to save the city from the ruin of Tammany, and that those votes, with those of the Democrats, will elect Low by a wide margin, regardless of the efforts of the Platt machine to cut down the Low vote."

MR. CHOATE'S SECOND SPEECH.

TO BE MADE THIS AFTERNOON IN COOPER UNION—MR. LOW'S ENGAGEMENTS.

The Women's Municipal League will have the credit for the success of the mass-meeting which is to be held at 4 p. m. to-day in the large hall of Cooper Union to endorse the candidacy of Seth Low. There is every reason to expect a large assembly of citizens at the meeting, and those who get seats in the hall probably will have to go earlier than the time appointed for the opening. Joseph H. Choate is to make his second speech in the campaign. Mayor Strong will preside and also make a short speech. Other speeches will be made by James C. Carter and the Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainford. Mr. Low will be at the meeting and make a short address.

This evening Mr. Low is to make several speeches in the city. At the Thalia Theatre, No. 46 Bowers, he probably will make his first speech of the evening, and he will be followed there by Joseph Laroque and other speakers. Mr. Low will be heard later at meetings at the Teutonia Assembly Rooms, No. 144 East Sixteenth-st., at Macdonald Hall, No. 22 Macdonald-st., and at the J. E. Millard Club, No. 104 Clinton Place.

To-morrow evening will be devoted by Mr. Low to speeches in Richmond County, and the citizens of Staten Island will have opportunities to see and hear him in company with several other prominent speakers.

Mr. Low will speak at two important mass-meetings on Friday evening, in this city. At Webster Hall, 119 East Greenwich-st., he will be heard in company with Joseph H. Choate, Charles S. Fairchild and other speakers. At Cooper Union he will appear with Carl Schurz, Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, and other speakers. At the meeting called by the German-American Reform Union to endorse the entire Citizens Union ticket.

The last big meeting of the campaign at which Mr. Low will make an address will be held on Saturday evening at Durland's Riding Academy. Oscar S. Straus will open the meeting, and James A. Punderford will preside. Speeches will be made by Governor Grover, General John Cook, John H. R. Okie and others.

ELSBERG'S CONTEST IN THE XXIXTH.

The regular Republican nominee for Member of Assembly from the XXIXth Assembly District is Nathaniel A. Elsborg. Although a young man, he has had a brilliant career and is deserving of election at the hands of all those who admire honesty, integrity and ability in a candidate for office. In 1892, while a student in the College of the City of New-York, he was elected as a member of the City of New-York, and in 1893, the year of his graduation, he was elected as a member of the City of New-York, and in 1894, the year of his graduation, he was elected as a member of the City of New-York, and in 1895, the year of his graduation, he was elected as a member of the City of New-York, and
